(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, April 13.—The Lafayette team met with astother downisil this afternoon before the 'Vareity ballplayers, and this time it was a shut-out. Only seven innings were played. Bockwell, their crack pit ther, was in the box and showed splendid speed for the first three innings, but the 'Vareity team found no trouble in hitting him.
The Lafayette team played very loosely all around, and only made two base-bits off MeGuire, who did not exet himself at all in his pitching. The University team played a very clean game and only made two errors. Their batting was strong and their fielding very pretty. Harper made a beautiful double play to Smith on first from a long fly to centre field.
Marshall caught a very pretty game. The Varsity team is gaining a reputation as heavy hitters, and will give Lehigh and Princeton tough work. The score was:

THE EDITION EXHAUSTED.

Members of Congress are receiving numerous requests for the government publication known as "Diseases of the Horse." It is impossible for them to read these books for the reason that the edition was exhausted long age. Each member had only 300 copies of the work, and in a district where there are 30,000 or more voters it will be readily seen that 300 will go a very short way. Members, as a rule, sent them out just as requests were received. The cost of the book is so great that the government was bound to limit the publication, and the original idea was to distribute the copies among people who would disseminate the knowledge it contained in the respective communities.

DISTRICT CONVENTION ELECT DELEGATES TO MINNEAPOLIS.

All Cut and Dried for Harrison-A State of Affairs in Alliance Circles.

Releion, N. C., April 13 .- The Republi can convention for the Fourth District met here to-day. Most of the delegates were colored. It elected John Nicholsand E. A. Johnson delegates to Minneapolis John H. Williamson, editor of the negro organ, the Gazette, was a candidate for delenue ring, which he declared had defeated him. His language was very plain, and he made quite a stir. The delegates elected are Harrison men.

Delegates to the Republican State Convention, which meets at noon to-morrow, pour in on every train, and a very large proportion are negroes. Your correspondent is assured that no State ticket will be put in the field. The Republicans are leaning heavily on the Third party. The contest will be first as to who are delegates to the convention. There are five contests, the leading one from Mecklenburg county, between the Brady and Gordon factions.

There will be another contest as to the chairmanship of the party. The personal teeling between John B. Eaves, the present chairman, and J. J. Mott, ex-chairman, is so high that the latter declares he and his friends will not consent to see Eaves continue in the position. Mott says he does not wish to be chairman. It is probable that a new man will be chosen, as there is a powerful pressure for this, if Faves insists Mott will fight him. Robert Patterson, of Cherokee county, is prominently mentioned for the chairmanship. THE ELECTORS.

Another matter to be considered is whother the convention small nominate two electors. Four delegates to Minneapolis will be chosen. Congressman Cheatham will be one of these and W. W. Rollins and E. A. White, both revenue collectors, may be elected also, though the Secretary of the Treasury has given them notice that President Harrison does not wish any office-holders as delegates.

WHO THEY WON'T YOTE FOR.

Your correspondent was informed to-day that S. Otho Wilson, one of the officials of the State Alliance, had old another Alliance man he would not vote for Governor Holt if the latter were nominated. The Alliance man was at one called on and said: "Mr. Wilson and invest were returning from an Alliance discussion. He asked me if I would vote for Cleveland if the latter were nominated. I said: 'I will reply by asking you a question. Will you vote for Governor Holt if he is nominated?' To this Mr. Wilson replied: "No. I will not:" The Alliance man then said: "Mr. Wilson, I do not think you have any right to ask me if I will vote for Cleveland when you do not expect to abide by the State convention of your State. You say you are coming to that convention?" "Yes," replied Mr. Wilson, "I expect to be a delegate." WHO THEY WON'T VOTE FOR.

Death of Major Henry Locher.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

LEXINGTON, Va., April 13.—Major Henry Locher died here this morning. He was during the Readjuster regime, quartermaster of the Virginia Military Institute, and was respected by everybody. He came here from Marriand about torty years ago and engaged in the milling business. He abandoned that after the war and lived on his farm, which some time ago he sold to a company of Richmond capitalists. It adjoins Buena Vista. He left two children. He was aged 60 years. phed Mr. Wilson, "I expect to be a delegate."

Now this shows a pretty state of affairs. It will give people an idea to what a pass things have come in North Carolina. It makes clear and sharp the fact that the St. Louis platform people, if that be a good name for them, calculate on capturing the Democratic convention, going there with a determination to support nobody and nothing unless it suits them. It shows further that they hope to capture all the State offices. For the Democrats it now remains to purge that convention of every man not Democratic to the very heart. Your correspondent believes this very action will be taken. Desperate discusses need desperate remedies.

Washington, April 12.—The House, is making rapid progress with the consideration of appropriation bills, and at the rate that body has been going Congress will be ready to adjourn by the first or middle of July, unless the Senate becomes subborn and refuses to follow in the economical path that has been made by the lower branch. Mr. Holman was put at the head of the Appropriations Committee for a purpose. It was to let the country know that this House intended to make a record in severe contrast with that of the Reed billion-dollar Congress. And at the same time the public service will not suffer in the elightest. There are leu i wails here against Mr. Holman's poley, and it cannot be said that he is popular even with the average congressman, for he runs against many of their schemes. In the departments he has not only created a panic among the clerks, but he is literally detested because the reductions in the appropriations will render it necessary to discharge in the near future soveral hundred clerks. They charge it all to Mr. Holman regardless of the fact that he is but one man, and that the House, or a majority of that body, will have to approve anything he may propose. Mr. Holman was yesterday nominated by acclamation for re-election to Congress. He is here attending to business and was not on hand to look after his fences, as he had no opposition. He came to Congress long before any man now in the House was a member of the body, but he has not served continuously as long as Mr. O'Neill, of Pennsylvania. Mr. Holman was left at home two or three times; but it now looks as if he can stay in Congress as long as he lives.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pianters' National Bank Tuesday Mr. Mann S. Quarles tendered his resignation as easier of that institution to accept the position of vice-president of the Virginia Safe-Deposit and Fidelity Company.

The board, in accepting Mr. Quaries's resignation, passed unanimously a series of resolutions drawn up by the president of the bank, Mr. J. E. Pace, and kr. T. William Pemberico, in which unqualified testimony is borne to Mr. Quarles's splendid capacity and the uniting energy and unremitting real he mas always manifested, and the acknowledgment is gracefully made that these qualities and his equanimity of manner, the patient forbearance under trying freedmeatances, and his uniform courtesy have materially aided in the attainment of the success the bank enjoys.

Mr. Pace also individually expressed his high a supervisery capacity.

Mr. Richard M. Smith, Mr. Quaries's successive, was formerly discount clork at the Flanters' Bank, and more recently cashier of the Security Savings Bank. He is a son of the late S. B. Smith, cashier of the First National Bank, and a grandson of the late W. P. Strother, of the old Exchange Bank.

Mr. A. Beirae Blair, who succeeds Mr. Smith in the Segurity Savings Bank, is a son of Mr. adolphus Blair, and has been in the insurance lepartment of the company to which he is now lected cashler.

Nearly Twenty-One Years Old.

The Walker Light Guard, Company B, First Virginia Regiment of Infantry, will attain their majority on the 15th of this month, and the members of the organization will celebrate the occasion in a fitting manner. The company will parade in the well-known uniform and snakes which have made them famous, after which there will be target-practice and a banquat in the evening. At the conclusion of the meal it is the intention of those having the collation in charge to urge the ex-members of the company to form themselves into an organization to be known as the Walker Light-Guard Association. Captain Cunningham is the commandant of the company, which was organized in 1871.

HE RAN AWAY WITH HATTIE. Mrs. Baker Looking for Her Husband and

Her Daughter, Who Have Eloped.

"My husband has run away with one of my daughters to marry her, and my stepson has eloped with my other daughter!"
The speaker was, according to a subsequent confession, "mad clean through." She arrived in this city on Monday, says a Washington special to the New York Herald, in search of her family, which has been scattered by a general elopement, and she is after the $2,300 which, she says, her husband has taken to pay the expenses of his wedding trip with her daughter.

Mrs. Addie E. Baker, the irate woman, lives on what's left of a farm near Staunton. Va. She says that about four months ago she married Mr. Baker. Her first husband died about a year ago, leaving her two girls, Hattie and Amanda, a nice farm of 200 acres, and plenty of stock. Baker, who lived on a rented farm near by with his grown-up son, courted the widow, and, it seems, incidentally, her daughter Hattie, whom the mother describes as a very pretty girl, aged 21.

The son "had a leaning toward Amanda," a beauty of eighteen summers. Soon after capturing the widow, Baker prevailed on her to sell most of the stock so he could invest the money during the hard times and get big interest on it.

A few days ago he said he was going to Washington to see about a war claim, and saggested that "it would be a nice thing for the girls to go to let them see the Capitol."

The widow consented, the girls were de-Her Daughter, Who Have Eleped.

The widow consented, the girls were delighted, and the grown, son went along to protect them. The widow got a letter from her husband Friday saying not to look for them; that he was going to marry Hattle, and his son "would take Amandy off her hands." The widow also says she learned that her husband took over $2,300 off her hands the day he left. She charged him with drawing all her money out of the bank. "He can go West with his son," she exclaimed, hotly. "I don't care where he goes. I never thought at the time of his being over-fond of Hattie, but I see now that it was a put up job. I think they are in this city, and I am going to get the police after them."

No trace of the husband, son-in-law, stopson, daughters, or stepdaughters had been found by Mrs. Baker up to a late hour to-night. The police do not think that the more or less happy couples are in the city. The widow, however, thinks The widow consented, the girls were de-that the more or less happy couples are in the city. The widow, however, thinks they are hiding here, and she has a private detective on their trail.

The widow said on Tuesday night that she was too tired to figure out the present relationship of the different members of her family. She said she would settle that when she caught them.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 13 .- A frightful ex-WHEEBBARRE, PA., April 13.—A frightful explesion of powder completely demolished the mills of the Moosic Powder Company at 11 o'clock this morning. The shocks were felt over a radius of forty miles, and thousands of people in the surrounding towns rushed out of doors, thinking an earthquake had taken place. The mills were blown to the smallest atoms, no fragments being found more than a foot long. Seven men were instantly killed, and two fatally injured. Loss about $20,000.

SAULT STE MARIE, MICH. April 13.—George M. Fritts, the postmaster at Trout Lake, near bere, keeper of a general store and township treasurer, who absconded a few days ago, took with him the contents of over 100 registered letters, a large amount of the township funds, and money belonging to creditors—in all over $10,000.

Nzw York, April 13.—The deposit of securities at the Central Trust Company today under the Richmond Terminal reorganization plan was very heavy. There were two long lines of depositors at the windows of the Trust Company all day, and many of the most prominent banking interests were among the largest depositors. The committee now states that the success of the plan is assured. The Stock Exchange governors to-day listed the engraved receipts for deposits of East Tennessee stocks and bonds. Large amounts of the underlying securities of the various companies controlled by the Trust Company were deposited during the day.
